OUR STORY

The Seacoast Learning Center, located in Rochester, NH, serves the greater seacoast area which includes parts of NH, MA, and ME. Since the inception in April of 2004 by the NH Scottish Rite Masons, more than two dozen children with reading challenges have received FREE training every year to help them overcome their dyslexia. More than 220 students have been tutored at our center and numerous teachers and other professionals have trained and been certified as tutors in the Orton Gillingham clinical methods to help change the lives of these precious children with Dyslexia.
